About Me

Blanche J is an indie singer-songwriter, originally from Wildwood, FL. An alum of Florida A&M University, Blanche officially embraced music as a career after relocating to Charlotte, NC, in 2009. Her background in soul, R&B, gospel and classical music, shines through in everything she sings. She takes the most essential aspects of each genre of music and blends it beautifully, creating an artistically pleasing sound to the ear with her warm, rich tone. She is currently located in Dallas, TX, where she continues her pursuit of spreading love through music.

Blanche J released her EP, Voice Memos A, in Dec 2018, featuring lead single, Grey Skies. Having again teamed up with indie artist and producer, Micki Miller, of South Bend, IN, she released her latest album, Voice Memos B, in Sept 2019. VMB was ranked #1 on the UK Global Soul chart for 3 consecutive weeks. Voice Memos A, Voice Memos B, and all other Blanche J releases are available on all digital media outlets.
